

Notice of Forthcoming Exempt Items

The Local Authorities (Executive Arrangements) (Meetings & Access to Information) (England) Regulations 2012

Description of matter to be discussed in private	Committee/ Decision Maker where the matter will be discussed in private	Reason(s) why the item is exempt	Background Information/documents submitted to the Committee / Decision Maker	Lead Officer Contact
To seek agreement to the CCTV Partnership Business Plan 2013-2016	Councillor John Burden, Executive Leader –as portfolio holder for Community Safety to make a decision under delegated powers on 6 November 2013	Disclosure of information in terms of the Financial model and costing and future development plans for the partnership is not permitted on the grounds of commercial sensitivity.	Report to Executive Leader 'CCTV Partnership Business Plan 2013-2016' dated 4 October 2013, with the Business Plan presented as an Appendix to the report	Sarah Kilkie Assistant Director (Communities)
If urgent, reason for urgency and who is to be/was consulted Not applicable		Detailed information regarding CCTV arrangements of the partnership is exempt in that it relates to prevention, investigation or prosecution of crime .and its disclosure may prejudice criminal investigations and proceedings and the apprehension of offenders.

Should you wish to make any representations about why the above parts of the meeting should be open to the public you should contact the Committee Section, committee.section@gravesham.gov.uk or 01474 33 73 14, 33 73 02, 33 72 48. Any such representations, the Local Authority's responses to them and a statement of reasons for the matters to be discussed in private will be published in a notice at least five days before the meeting.