Topic Gravesham Borough Council Social Value Policy

Decision To approve the Social Value Policy for Gravesham Borough Council

Reasons for the decision The council is legally obliged to consider how procurement and delivery of contracts might secure additional social, however this legal obligation only applies to high value contracts predominantly for services. The council however would like to apply a social value principles to cover all procurement.

In response to the above, the council has put in place a Social Value Policy which was presented and reviewed by the Commercial Services Cabinet Committee in March 2022. This policy complements the Councils procurement strategy.
