Key Implications:
Item	Implications
Legal	The Accounts & Audit Regulations 2015 require local authorities to: undertake an effective internal audit to evaluate the effectiveness of its risk management, control and governance processes, taking into account public sector internal auditing standards or guidance. These Standards are also supported by CIPFA's Local Government Application Note to the Public Sector Internal Audit Standards. The Public Sector Internal Audit Standards require internal audit to have a charter to define their purpose, authority and responsibility and is periodically reviewed and approved. The Section 151 Officer of a local authority is responsible for establishing the internal audit service. Gravesham Borough Council has delegated this responsibility to the Section 151 Officer of Medway Council to deliver internal audit services through the Shared Service to both authorities.
Finance and Value for Money	An adequate and effective Internal Audit function provides the council with assurance on the proper, economic, efficient and effective use of council resources in delivery of services.
Corporate Plan	The work of Internal Audit supports the council in achieving all of its objectives set out in the Corporate Plan 2023-27 but is particularly relevant to the Objective One Council : a well-run and innovative authority, defined by its skilled and valued workforce, committed to developing its local social impact. Corporate Compliance : a responsible organisation, ensuring all constitutional, policy and legislative demands are met, and proactive risk management practices adopted.

Climate Change	There are no climate change implications to this report.

1. Introduction

- 1.1 The Public Sector Internal Audit Standards (PSIAS) state that: The purpose, authority and responsibility of the internal audit activity must be formally defined in an internal audit charter, consistent with the Definition of Internal Auditing, the Code of Ethics and The Standards. The Chief Audit Executive must periodically review the internal audit charter and present it to senior management and the board for approval.
- 1.2 The Internal Audit Charter in place was approved by the Finance & Audit Committee on 13 February 2023.

2. Review of the Charter

- 2.1 As mentioned in the background to this report, it is a requirement of the PSIAS to have a charter in place covering aspects of internal audit activity, which is reviewed periodically.
- 2.2 Following the annual review, it has been determined that the existing charter meets all the requirements of PSIAS and that no amendments are necessary, with the exception of an updated structure chart at Appendix 1 of the document.
- 2.3 A copy of the charter is provided at Appendix 2 for Members' approval for 2024-25.
- 2.4 Updates to the Global Internal Audit Standards, which were released on 9 January 2024 and will be effective from January 2025, will subsequently lead to changes to PSIAS. Based on what is shown in the new Global Standards, changes to the Charter will be necessary for 2025-26.
